PRESS RELEASE

September 14, 2018, Cambridge, Ontario, Canada

New Vice President of Sales and Marketing – Christian Jordan

Jamesway Incubator Company is pleased to welcome Christian Jordan to its senior team as Vice President of Sales and Marketing. Christian is based out of the Cambridge, Canada office and will be responsible for managing the sales efforts worldwide.

Christian has an impressive background in international marketing from years managing feed and agricultural machinery for various companies including incubation, and processing within the poultry sector. His experience has involved understanding and analyzing trends in many parts of the world and developing business and products for many diverse markets. He has occupied the position of Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Sweet Manufacturing Company, a leader in specialized agricultural equipment and was also Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Lambton Conveyor Limited for more than 8 years. Christian spent many years working in the grain storage, bulk handling and feed milling industry. "I am excited to continue to be involved in the live production side of the poultry industry," he said. "I appreciate the work ethics and relationships Jamesway has developed in its long history. I also look forward to working with our excellent sales team to enhance our relationships in the many countries where Jamesway is already active, and to supporting the teams in our emerging markets."

Christian speaks both Spanish and Italian fluently and comes from a multi-cultural background which renders him particularly suitable for handling Jamesway's diverse client base. Over the coming weeks and months, he will be spending time becoming more familiar with the organization, sales representatives, and customers.

"I am grateful for the opportunity to be a part of the Jamesway organization," said Jordan. "I look forward to presenting the high quality equipment, customer service and values that Jamesway offers our customers."
