Director, North American Sales – Ken Long

Hello Everyone

I am pleased to announce that Ken Long as our new Director of Sales North American. Ken will be based in Canton, Georgia where he resides.

Ken has been working with Pilgrim's Pride since 1994 holding several positions as project engineer, maintenance manager, plant manager and recently as complex manager. Prior to that position, he was with Crider Poultry as Industrial and Plant Engineer. Over those years he worked extensively with Jamesway equipment and service. He brings a wealth of knowledge to our team and will be a great addition to our sales division and its expertise in the hatchery industry bringing our customers extensive on site experience and engineering while providing a "Worry Free Hatchery".

Ken studied at Georgia Southern College receiving a Bachelor of Science Degree in Industrial Engineering Technology.

Upon acceptance of this position Ken had this to say to everyone at Jamesway, "I am very excited to be entering the allied sector of our industry and blessed to be joining Jamesway, a company with over 100 years of experience and a worldwide reputation for supplying the best hatchery equipment available. I am confident that my 28 years of poultry experience, a vast majority of it with an industry leader, has afforded me the knowledge to be successful in this endeavor."

He will work to strengthen our relationships with our US customers, external and internal sales team.

Please join us in welcoming Ken Long to the Jamesway Team!
